

HELPING CHILDREN TO THE TUNE OF $30,000

The Philharmonic Winds music director Leonard Tan (far left) and president Adrian Cheong (second from left) presenting a cheque for $30,000 to Mr Steven Lee (far right), chairman of The Children's Charities Association of Singapore.

The money will go towards benefiting the association's six member charities, including the Singapore Children's Society and Singapore Association for the Deaf.

The cheque was presented at a concert by the Singapore wind orchestra on Sunday at the Esplanade Concert Hall, featuring musicians Benjamin Kheng, Tay Kexin and Gani Karim. Minister of State for Defence and National Development Mohamad Maliki Osman (third from left) was the guest of honour. PHOTO: ADRIAN CHEONG